IN THE MIDST OF PEOPLE 500 YEARS AGO

Visit LUTHER 1517, a 360° panorama, and discover Wittenberg at the time of Martin Luther, Frederick the Wise and Lucas Cranach. As a highlight of the Reformation Summer 2017, Yadegar Asisi has dedicated a huge cyclorama to those events 500 years ago, when the monk and scholar Martin Luther published his 95 Theses on church reform in Wittenberg. In doing so, he sparked a dramatic upsurge of change that has shaped societies worldwide and to this day.

Go up to the viewing platform, and project yourself back to Renaissance Wittenberg, looking down at Castle Square. Thanks to sound and light effects you will experience how day turns to night, and be caught up in the events around 1517. Immerse yourself in the suspense of those earthshaking, turbulent times.

Yadegar Asisi links key historical moments with everyday life and recreates the age as an atmospheric whole – over an area of 15 x 75 meters. The panorama gives a detailed portrayal of the contemporary mood – poised between medieval and modern times. It focuses on persons and their place in society. And it depicts everyday life, exemplified in feudal pageantry, learned asceticism and, of course, the joys and cares of “ordinary people”.
