

Way Stations of the Reformation CAMBRIDGE 23 February 2017

An Anglican Contribution with Partners

SEMINAR

Seminar on the theme of “Reformation: Then and Now” at Church of St. Edward King & Martyr, Peas Hill Cambridge

- 10.00 Coffee, tea and biscuits
- 10.30 Welcome and opening by Rt Revd Nicholas Baines, the Bishop of Leeds
- 10.40 Opening musical contribution: The German Choir London conducted by Barbara Hoefling
- 10.50 Keynote Address by the Rt Revd and Rt Hon Lord Williams of Oystermouth
- 11.30 Responses to the Keynote Address from Younger Theologians
- ❖ Anglican: Revd Dr Jamie Hawkey
 - ❖ Lutheran: Dr Åste Dokka
- 11.50 Questions from the participants
- 12.20 Concluding remarks: Bishop Rowan Williams
- 12.25 Vote of thanks: Rt Revd Nicholas Baines, the Bishop of Leeds
- 12.30 Concluding musical contribution: the German Choir London

Please register here for the seminar:

<https://www.eventbrite.co.uk/e/reformation-then-and-now-tickets-28522580807>

OTHER EVENTS IN THE AFTERNOON:

- 13.15-14.30 Parker Library, Corpus Christi College open for visitors:
- ❖ 13.45-14.15 A presentation by Parker Librarian

REFORMATION EXHIBITION TRUCK

- 14.30- 16.15 The Reformation Exhibition Truck that is visiting a number of cities across Europe will park at Parker’s Piece. There will be opportunity to see a film, listen to music, conduct interviews and engage in discussions.
- ❖ 14:30 Concert by the German Choir London - conductor Barbara Höfling.
 - ❖ 15.15 Mrs Sibella Laing (Corpus Christi College), along with a small team will offer information on the key areas of reformation interest in Cambridge and local historical perspectives.

EVENSONG

- 17.30-18.30 Evensong inspired by Bach Vespers, at Kings College Cambridge with participation of German Choir London (providing soloists) and City Bach Collective (instrumentalists).
- ❖ Preacher: Bishop Susanne Breit-Kessler of the Meissen Commission